Disclaimer

While the provisions of this document shall be binding for all the citizens of the Federal Republic of Lostisland, it is expected that the citizens of Lostisland will follow and respect the laws and regulations of their countries of residence and their respective governments, with those laws and regulations having superiority to the provisions of this Constitution in case of a dispute.

It is also recognized that, due to the Federal Republic of Lostisland being an unofficial international membership organization, the provisions of this and other documents belonging to and/or issued by the Federal Republic of Lostisland will have no legal effect outside Lostisland, unless recognition of Lostisland's documents was explicitly, or through a treaty, declared by the party in question. It is also recognized that, for the same reason, the "citizenship" of the Federal Republic of Lostisland may not substitute citizenship of a UN member state. The usage of the word "state" in regards to the Federal Republic of Lostisland shall be treated not as a claim to statehood, but rather as part of nation state emulation.

in no event shall the Federal Republic of Lostisland be liable to any party for direct, indirect, special, incidental, or consequential damages, including lost profits, arising out of the provisions of this and other documents belonging to and/or issued by the federal republic of lostisland, even if the federal republic of lostisland has been advised of the possibility of such damage.

The entirety of this document, and of the other documents of the Federal Republic of Lostisland, is copyrighted and remains intellectual property of its author(s), the authors being Deniz Tezcan and Yaroslav Mar, protected under Russian, European and international copyright laws. No part of this or other documents of the Federal Republic of Lostisland may be adopted for one's needs without explicit permission of their author(s).

The Government of the Republic has proposed,
The Lostislandic people have adopted,
The President for Life hereby promulgates the constitution as follows:
